Ashfords International Recruitment Seminar

Struggling to recruit workers for your business? Job vacancies have jumped 40% in 12 months, and ABS data shows there are approximately 470,000 unfilled jobs in Australia. Employers are currently facing a chronic shortage of staff across multiple industries and the impact is being felt by businesses large and small.

Ashfords brings together experienced professionals in recruitment to discuss how to recruit workers from overseas including the legal, compliance and taxation considerations for businesses.
